

Inside the North Korean Gulag

Wednesday, 28 September 2005

Thursday,

September 29, 2005

7:00 p.m. Museum of Tolerance, 9786 West Pico Ave., Los Angeles, 90035

An Evening with Kang Chol-Hwan

An Escapee's compelling first person account whose testimony has impacted Presidents and Foreign Policy

Sponsored by: Simon Wiesenthal Center Museum of Tolerance,
Amnesty International
Visual Artists Guild
LiNK, Liberty in North Korea

Learn first hand the plight of the North Korean people through the author of The Aquarium of Pyongyang: Ten Years in the North Korean Gulag. At the age of nine, Kang was sent with his family to the North Korean gulag and spent ten years of his life there. Mr. Kagn wrote, "I sought refuge in South Korea in order to expose to the world the unimaginable crimes committed in the political prison camps by the Pyongyang regime."

Book signing to follow presentation.

Where: Museum of Tolerance, 9786 West Pico Ave., Los Angeles, 90035

When: Thursday, September 29, 2005

7:00 p.m.

Ticket: $5.00

Ticket Purchase: 310-772-2452 For more info and assistance send an email or call Ann at 310-539-0234