

Tianamen Mothers Campaign

Monday, 31 January 2005

Tiananmen Mothers are the mothers and family members of the victims who were killed or injured in the June Fourth Massacre in Beijing, China in 1989. After the massacre, they grouped together and have been trying to gather information about the injured, the dead and the disappeared as evidence of crimes and violation of human rights by the Chinese government.

Please sign to support of the Tiananmen Mothers

- We demand the right for the Tiananmen Mothers and family members of victims to mourn peacefully, freely and publicly for the dead regarding this is a very natural and normal way to grieve for their beloved ones.
- We demand the right for parents, husbands, wives or children of victims to visit the tombs freely to mourn for their beloved ones.
- We demand the right for them not to be subjected to surveillance, harassment, intimidation, oppression, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment.
- We demand for them to be treated in a humane way.

Please sign here (All the names collected here would be submitted to the Chinese government.)

For more info and assistance send an email or call Ann at 310-539-0234

VAG is responding to the Tiananmen Mothers 64 Roses campaign initiated by www.tmc-hk.org